

A Talcum Dusting After the Swim

WHERE will you take the swim—in the tub, under the shower, in the river, in the lake or in the ocean? Why do you take the swim? Just for the refreshing cleanliness and—that's all. Complete this plunge with a talcum dusting afterwards. We sell the daintiest, nicest little talcum possible to buy in your favorite odor.

"DAPHNE AND THE PIRATE"

Triangle Fine Art production, featuring Lillian Gish with all-star support. Lillian Gish has scored what will be universally conceded her greatest triumph in her charming and delightful portrayal of Elsie Stoneman, in "The Birth of a Nation," produced by Mr. D. W. Griffith. One of Lillian's chief charms, and in many respects the keynote of her screen success, is her natural poise. She seems to live in the parts she portrays and is conceded unrivaled in the art of conveying her emotion to the camera without resorting to artificial gestures or unnatural facial expressions.

MONDAY—"Out of the Drifts." Paramount feature with the adorable Marguerite Clark in a romance of irresistible appeal. A photoplay of rare charm.

Don't miss this picture. Triangles are the best and the Keystone comedy will make you forget your troubles.

Matinee open 2 to 5 p. m. Night show on 7:10 to 11 p. m.
